It's a Great Life

Each year, as time changes numbers and seasons begin the cycle of renewal, the TV stations show an “oldie, but goodie” called “It’s a great life.” And, each year, I watch and feel a different sensation and understand it a little differently. I sit and know the next part and the next part, but still I leave feeling as though I never saw it before. It is a timeless story of greed and goodness combined to emphasize that each supports the other, each dependent on the other. Goodness comes from adversity. Goodness also comes from watching the misery that envelops people during various episodes in their lives. This year, watching again there were no exceptions. Kindness and charity won the day. Gloom and doom were put on the back burner of life’s journey. They may rear their ugly heads again, but we can and should be a little stronger with the next encounter because we understand a little better.

No person is alone if he or she has friends. I am not writing about acquaintances, but honest-to-goodness friends who will nurture and offer comfort and support when needed. Friends who will be there when there is joy and happiness, but more importantly when comfort and solace are needed. There are those of us who cannot endure the pain. The pain of sickness, and even death. The pain of loneliness. We tend to concentrate on these more as time goes on. There are those of us who look at life as an adventure; looking for the next mountain to climb, looking for the rainbow’s end, looking at all the greatness we are capable of. Friends share all this and more. Sometimes friends are more supportive than family.

As the saying goes, “we can choose our friends, but not our family.” To me that is the gift given to us as we continue our journey into the unknown looking for brightness and meaning.

Our congregation is a microscopic view of the world. We come in all shapes and sizes. We have different names. We look differently on the outside, but deep down we are all the same when it comes to compassion and caring. It is the inward appearance that is important, the stuff that exceptionalism is made from. We should not need a season or holiday to awaken in us the wonderful opportunities for us to enjoy the greatest gift of all — life. The holidays and seasons do afford us one great advantage — the opportunity to regroup, take stock, reevaluate, and yes, begin again. That is the function of the various commemorations in our journey. Forget the fringes and the gifts, and concentrate on the values we share. That is what new beginnings such as a New Year are all about.

So, here I sit, once more, watching the familiar tearjerker knowing full well the predictable outcome. This time, however, I learned a new lesson wrapped in a familiar package called faith. Not new, you say. Well, perhaps not, but new in the sense that it awakens in me what I have known for some time, but occasionally forget: faith can be sustaining. Faith can have meaning. Faith is enduring. Faith is the essence of life because it gives us hope. Faith gives us purpose and without purpose life has no meaning.

As we continue to join together in enjoying each other, even when it appears that we are not, my faith rests with the blessings I experience watching everyone continue to thrive. Most of all, my faith is enhanced knowing that God is part of our voyage toward complete fulfillment and contentment.

Happy 2020! ■

SLJC Men's Club

The Men's Club is a social organization that meets the first Tuesday of the month from September through June. We have interesting speakers from our community address our membership each month. Guests are always invited, and refreshments are provided. The Club also holds special lunches as well as various outings in the local area. The SLJC membership is encouraged to become members of the Men's Club to enable fellowship throughout our Jewish. Membership dues are due on July 1st each year.

The Men's Club collects non-perishable food for local food banks prior to Friday night services in front of the Chapel, from 6:15 pm until 6:45 pm. Please do not leave your donations by the garage as they may get lost or discarded. Also, please consider donating to this worthy cause. 586 pounds of food has been collected since the High Holy Day services. Let's keep up the good work!

Our next Men's Club meeting will take place on Tuesday, January 7 at 7:00 pm at the Chapel Center. As always, wives and prospective members are welcome. Refreshments will be provided beginning at 6:30 pm.

This month, the speaker will be our own Murray Siegel who will present part 2 of "Jews and Rock 'n' Roll." Part one was a big hit last year with a fun night of tunes and commentary on the impact Jews have had in modern music. Part two will be even better.

Future events, visits, and lunches are being planned. For further information, please contact Steve Horowitz stevehorowitz@windstream.net.

Friends of Israel

On Sunday, February 23 at 3 pm, Rabbi Michael Beyo will be speaking, his discussion entitled "Why Is Jerusalem so Important to the Muslims?" Rabbi Beyo, CEO of the East Valley JCC, is a historian, university level educator, and has written and taught extensively about historical and current Jewish and Israeli topics. This topic is of great relevance to the current political situation and the continuous struggle between Israel and the Palestinians. His knowledge and insights will help us better understand the ongoing conflict and the daily news from the Middle East. This event will be held in the Chapel Center and is free and open to the public.

In addition to our three lecture events per year, we also disseminate non-partisan and unbiased articles about the current situation in Israel and in the United States relative to Israel. Many of these articles are recent surveys from both countries as well as positive news about advances in health and technology in Israel. If you would like to be added to the list of Israel supporters receiving these emails, please let us know at mwcohen000@gmail.com. You may remove yourself from the distribution list at any time.

New Team Members In the New Year

Wow! It's already 2020. I hope you have a wonderful year, filled with good health, peace, and an openness to change. The Board of Directors, as well, is adopting new ways of doing things that will affect all of us, hopefully in good ways.

To start with, I am delighted to announce that Wendy Feldman-Kerr has rejoined the board after a few years' absence and has agreed to become co-president. Wendy was previously a vice president of the BOD and knows the operations and practices very well. In addition, through her work on the Budget Committee and professionally as a Financial Advisor, she has knowledge of business and non-profit needs and finances, which will be of great assistance.

At the November BOD meeting, we thoroughly discussed our current challenges. Primarily, we are a community of many retirees and we face an aging congregation. There are fewer and fewer individuals who want to accept major volunteer responsibilities. To an extent, this is understandable, although the situation still has to be remedied. I am happy to say that Marilyn Koss, just elected to the BOD at the annual meeting this past November, has agreed to become Membership Chair. You will be hearing more from her as the year goes on. When Michael Dar, who had acted both as Treasurer and publisher of The Shpiel, decided to step down, the BOD faced two major areas to fill. We owe Michael many thanks for making such a commitment to SLJC.

After much thoughtful conversation and after noting that qualified congregants who were asked had declined, the BOD voted to outsource both the finance and publishing responsibilities. Simply put, we cannot provide appropriate services to our members if we don't ensure expected and necessary monthly operations, reporting, and communications. For the accounting and finance duties, the BOD has voted to hire Lesley Cochran, an experienced bookkeeper, for a three-month trial period.

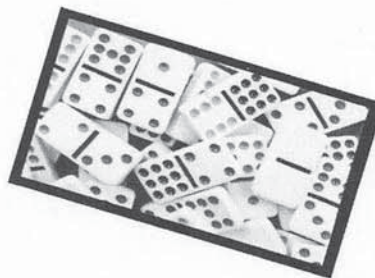

The BOD has also been very fortunate to have identified and hired Liz Vaisben, owner of evdesignport, to publish The Shpiel. Liz is the publisher of several other temple publications and is quite flexible to be sure each client receives the type of publication desired. Mike Milgroom (who will be our official BOD liaison for The Shpiel) and I met with her to discuss how our monthly articles will be passed along and edited; we'll make tweaks as needed so that The Shpiel will come to us each month as usual. You may notice a few design changes and more photos; Liz jumped in right away to produce this edition of The Shpiel that you are now reading.

These decisions by the BOD will no doubt bring about some questions, and I encourage you to call me (480-305-0123) or email me (gerijim@hotmail.com) if you want to talk. Thank you to everyone who has volunteered in the past and to those who continue to do so. In the long run, SLJC will continue to be a strong and vibrant congregation for us all. ■

Incoming Co-President Wendy Feldman-Kerr at a recent SLJC Board Meeting

Part 2 – Tuesday, March 24
Death, Beliefs about Afterlife

1:00-2:30 p.m.

Sun Lakes Chapel – Sun Lakes, Arizona

Open to the public at no cost

Speakers

Minister Carolina Uribe, Pastor at St. Mary's Church of Chandler

Asra Hassain of the Islamic Speakers Bureau

Dr. M. Zuhdi Jasser, President of the American Islamic Forum for Democracy

Pastor Mitch McDonald, newly installed at Sun Lakes Community Church

Rabbi Irwin Wiener, Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation

Sponsored by Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation

al Program Open to All

On Tuesday, January 28 and Tuesday, March 24, you are invited to attend two panels entitled Life Cycle Rituals. The January panel will explore cultural and religious rituals surrounding birth, coming of age, and marriage. The March panel will offer explanations of rituals surrounding death and beliefs about the afterlife.

Panelists include Minister Carolina Uribe, from St. Mary's Church in Chandler (primarily a Hispanic congregation); Ms. Azra Hassain of the Islamic Speakers Bureau and Dr. M. Zuhdi Jasser, President of the American Islamic Forum for Democracy; Pastor Mitch McDonald, newly installed at Sun Lakes Community Church (representing traditional Christian views); and Rabbi Irwin Wiener of the Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation.

Both sessions will take place from 1 to 2:30 pm at the Sun Lakes Chapel. The programs are free and open to the public, though donations at the door will be gratefully accepted to benefit the Sun Lakes Chapel Board. Please save the dates and come and learn from all these amazing speakers.

LONE SOLDIER PROJECT by Michael Cohen, MD

Thanks to all the congregants who wrote Hanukkah Greeting Letters to Lone Soldier. Many people preferred writing notes on generic “Happy Hanukkah” cards over the “Happy Hanukkah” stationary. Next year, there will be cards available to everyone.

SLJC letters were part of a larger effort during which we spoke to 560 youth at 7 congregational religious schools, two day schools, two summer camps and a preschool. Other community organizations contributed letters to bring the total to over 700 letters that were sent to three Lone Soldier Centers in Israel.

Committee members who have participated in our Youth Education presentations have found them both enjoyable and meaningful. Souzan Blumberg noted: “As I looked around the classroom that day, I realized this educational activity involved all generations. We seniors were teaching and inspiring children, teen counselors, and parents... and our caring letters would connect the Arizona Jews to Jews in Israel.” The 2020 Hanukkah Greeting campaign will be expanded and we will need more volunteers. If you have an interest in interacting with youth of all ages, let us know at lonesoldiers@evjcc.org.

It is truly a mitzvah to brighten Hanukkah for a Lone Soldier far away from home as shown below in a picture of two Lone Soldiers at the Michael Levin Lone Soldier Center in Jerusalem, who just received hats and letters written by students for them.
