Message from Our Rabbi

A Moment In Time

Many of us have seen movies, heard stories or read books about the Holocaust. Most of us received some message or meaning from the experience. But through all the telling there is one theme that is the common denominator-survival.

All Holocaust depictions have that unmistakable message. Whether it is Schindler's List or Sophie's Choice, or more recent films like The Reader or Defiance, we see man's inhumanity toward man and we smell the stench of hatred and despair.

We all bear witness to the fact that truth cannot be substituted by madness. Only complacency can hide the truth from us. Even those among us today, who declare that the Holocaust is a figment of someone's imagination, will one day understand that truth may be manipulated but only because of the willingness of the family of man. Truth is the one weave in the fabric of humanity that is eternal, as is the message brought to keep the memory alive.

The ultimate truth is that we are left to not only be witnesses but also to try to make sense of it all. The survivors of this unimaginable destruction of spirit and flesh are the true observers of the two faces of society-good and evil.

We are also left to remember because that is a holy mission. To remember is part of the understanding of the tragic episode it represents. There is no one answer as there is no one explanation that would allow us to have closure.

This horrific chapter should never be forgotten for that would certainly desecrate the memory of those who have no one to say prayers or light candles or tell tales of their lives. Scratched on the wall of a railroad car, one of the lost souls wrote: "I should like someone to remember that their once lived a person named David Berger." We must never let this chapter end because of all the David Bergers who are nameless and faceless. We will never finish the story because it has no ending. The struggles of life and the tortures of memory will never complete the tragic retelling of the souls that are weeping because they are afraid we will forget them.

The ranks of those who suffered and those who were liberators are thinning. Soon only memory will be the torch that is carried to the next generation. We cannot allow this chapter to be minimized or trivialized because then it just becomes a moment in time.

The smell from the ovens will always be there, and with it the remnants of a generation who were consumed by hate and indifference. We must remember their sacrifice and just as we have survived, so too their memories shall remain with us forever. And each time we watch a film, or tell a story of someone we never knew who was lost, or try to imagine the million children who looked at us in disbelief – each time we remember we ensure the immortality of these souls that symbolizes re-birth.

We pledge that this will never be just a moment in time, but a moment for all time. Help us to keep the pledge – join us April 23rd – 2pm in the Chapel as we, and the entire Sun Lakes Community, Commemorate and Remember!

Cantorial Notes: Remembering the Holocaust in Song

In the month of April, we remember the atrocities that were committed against the Jewish people during the Holocaust. We call this day of remembrance Yom HaShoah. Many songs have been composed to help us recall those who suffered and died at the hands of the Nazis. In recent times, it has become commonplace to celebrate in the synagogue with newly adopted rituals that include lighting candles, reading commemorative poems, chanting the El Malei Rachamim (offered during memorial and funeral services), reciting the mourner's Kaddish and singing songs that remind us of the sacrifices made by so many during this time.

A traditional lyric is Ani Ma-amin. There have been several melodies written for these beautiful words which read “I believe with complete Faith in the coming of the Messiah, and even if he tarries, I believe. With all this, I believe, and I will wait for him all the days of my life.”

Some of the older melodies were written to provide a way to bring people together, offer comfort and strengthen the partisan fighters. One example is the song “Zog Nit Keyn Mol” (Never Say), composed by the young poet Hirsh Glik in 1943 and sung to a Russian melody which became the official hymn of the FPO (Fareynike Partizaner Organizatsye-United Partisan Organization).

Other compositions bridge older melodies with modern applications like the Schindler's List melodies. It starts with a sweet, old Yiddish lullaby Oyfn Pripetchik and it segues into Jerusalem of Gold. This piece also offers us a sense of hope with the idea of the land of Israel.

As our whole community comes together to commemorate the victims and heroes of the Holocaust, let the lyrics of these melodies paint a picture of remembrance for you. In the song Remember: A Song for Yom HaShoah, it says “remembrance is strong, and sometimes a song can remind us of those who came before, remind us what memory's for...”. We will light the candles in memory of the generations lost and pray for peace.

B'Shalom, Ronda

Jewish Programming on DirecTV

Channel 388 on DirecTV is the Jewish Broadcasting Service (JBS), which presents a wide range of Jewish entertainment and education throughout the day. For example, a complete musical Shabbat Service is broadcast Fridays at 3PM from the Central Synagogue in New York City, and news from Israel is broadcast daily at 3PM, except for Friday when it is 2PM. During Chanukah, there were multiple special music programs like the award-winning “a cappella” group Maccabeats. Check it out.

Channel 366 on DirecTV is a second source of Jewish programming.

Not Receiving The Shpiel or Eblasts Electronically?

Some congregants are having trouble receiving SLJC news from the new website address, possibly because some email providers are sending the messages straight to Spam. If any SLJC member you know is having this problem, tell them to add sljccomm@gmail.com to their contacts list, and add SLJC News to the name field in the contact.

A copy of the Shpiel for this or many previous months can be downloaded from our web site SLJC.ORG by clicking on the Shpiel tab.

Send any articles you wish to have published in The Shpiel to Mark Salita at mark_salita@yahoo.com by the 15th of the month for publication on the last day of the month.

President's Message

CHAG SAMEACH! May You Have a Joyful Passover.

As we reach the festival of Passover, the SLJC Board of Directors has many important projects underway.

The Finance Committee and the Board have begun to develop the budget and dues structure for the coming year (September 1, 2017 to August 31, 2018). We're also discussing High Holiday ticket prices for the coming year. In addition, the board is looking at additional expenses in running SLJC and the programs and services that we offer.

The SLJC Bylaws Committee has met twice and has suggested some modifications to the Bylaws. These changes reflect the growing needs of the congregation and succession planning for the future. Please see the Summary of Changes to the Bylaws on the next page. If you wish to review the current Bylaws you may do so by going to the SLJC WEB site, click on the History tab and at the bottom of the page, you will see the link to our current Bylaws.

Volunteerism is an important element of the success to SLJC and ways to engage future board members and committee chairs will be discussed at this time.

SLJC members are invited to attend a Congregation Meeting on either Tuesday April 18th at 7:00 PM or Tuesday April 25th at 4:00 pm in the Chapel Center to share your ideas and offer your input on the issues discussed above. These meetings do not replace the annual fall meeting but are in addition and are being held to hear from you. After a brief presentation on the new draft budget and Bylaws, the meeting will be open for your comments, ideas and any concerns you may have.

SAVE THE DATE: Break-the-FAST

SLJC will be holding a Break-the-Fast event immediately following the completion of Yom Kippur services on Saturday, September 30th. This is an opportunity to be with your friends, family and other SLJC members and enjoy good food, relax and avoid cooking. Details on the event (including the cost) will be provided at a future date.

Finally, SLJC made the decision to have one database for all member information last year. With your dues statement at the beginning of this year you received a form to complete with all the information we need for the new database. Some individuals only filled out part of the form and others completed some sections but not others. The new database is the formal database of SLJC. In order to honor you on your birthday/anniversary or send you a reminder of a yahrzeit, we need your information. If you did not fill out the form, or did not fill out parts of the form or cannot remember whether you filled it out please contact Myra Buckner at 480-305-0533 to make sure we have your complete information. The information we have in the new database is what is being used in the Shpiel and for all communication with our congregants. We want to make sure it is as complete as possible. If you need a new Membership form, it can be retrieved from the SLJC WEB site at www.SLJC.org under the forms tab.

Friends of Israel: Lone Soldier Project

The congregational project to benefit lone soldiers in the IDF has begun. Lone Soldier are mostly youth from all over the world who volunteer to be in the IDF. The purpose of this program is to recognize them for their determination and effort to enhance the security of Israel, now and for future generations. You will have an opportunity to hear more about Lone Soldiers and this project at the May 12th Shabbat Service.

The Lone Soldier Project will accomplish this goal by providing gifts of Personal Care Packages and Knitted Hats to them as a token of our appreciation. In addition, the project is identifying Lone Soldier in the Phoenix Valley to raise awareness of their role in the defense of Israel and organize a broader appreciation for that vital role.

There is a Donation Form in this issue of the Shpiel. A $25.00 donation will provide gift of a Personal Care Package and a Knitted Hat that is identified as coming from congregation and the specific donor. Program donation will go to support the entire program (mailings, administrative materials etc.). Please join us at the May 12th Shabbat to find out more about this exciting social action project.

A donation of $25.00 will provide personal care package and a hat knitted by a congregant to a Lone Soldier in the IDF. A note identifying you as the donor will be sent with the gifts. If you wish to add a brief personal message, please do so below.

Our Israeli Partner “Chayal el Chayal (Soldier to Soldier)” was started by Lone Soldiers. They have a variety of supportive programs including Homes away from Home where Lone Soldiers can spend Shabbat and Holidays. They will be distributing the packages and hats we send to Israel.
