Messages from our Clergy

Rosh Hashanah – September 29/30

Yom Kippur – October 8/9

There is a proverb attributed to the ancient Chinese philosopher Lao Tse which states: “A journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step.” Needless to say, the proverb’s meaning is obvious. It is also profound. Obvious, because we cannot go anywhere without that first step. Profound because that first step is crucial in everything we do. Energy is needed to take that first step, but vision is needed to understand where we are going and why

The holidays we are about to embark upon require both efforts to reach an understanding of our lives and how they impact others. Most importantly, however, is how these holidays impact each of us individually. Some will wonder about why, at this stage in our lives, do we need to be concerned about where we are going? Well, truth be told, if we don’t know where we are going, how can we ever get there.

So, where is it we are going? Let’s start the day – we are going to “get up,” we are going to fix “breakfast,” we are going to get “dressed,” we are going to start our “day.” Simple enough! However, all these things lead us to a very important aspect of life – purpose. This is the one ingredient that is necessary for a meaningful life that never ends just because of age. It is the impetus for fulfillment.

This, in essence, is what these holidays are all about. Sure, we utter words, we listen to music, we perform certain rituals, and we leave satisfied that we have reached another milestone in our lives. However, the real significance can be found in sitting next to a friend or relative, exchanging wishes for a better year ahead, and understanding that when we take that first step it is the step of continuation.

Life is the significant word we read in the prayer book. Life is the culmination of the past and the beginning of the future. When we utter the compelling phrase, “May you be inscribed in the Book of Life,” we are proclaiming that Rosh Hashanah represents the beginning of the rest of our lives. It is a time to set aside the petty grievances and insignificant animosities to remember that what we do with the rest of our lives is what really matters.

Rosh Hashanah was designed to help us in our journey – it is the first step in completing the next one and the next one after that. Each step we take can give us the ability to look forward while still remembering what we left behind.

Perhaps you will be interested in learning more about Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur during my two upcoming lectures at the Chapel Center: September 24 – “Preparing for a great experience of practices, traditions and rituals of the High Holidays.” October 29 – An evaluation of our High Holiday experiences and “How it taught us to deal with aging gracefully and our physical and emotional changes.”

In the meantime, I am looking forward to spending my 17th High Holidays with you. The Hebrew letters that equal 17 spell the word “Tov” – and, yes, it has been good to be with you these years. I hope it has been good for you. I look forward to another year of fulfillment and joy as we continue taking that first step together into a new chapter in our lives.

Sandi joins me in wishing everyone a great, joyous New Year.

Rabbi Irwin Wiener, D.D.

President's Message

As we look forward to a new year, we all pray for one of peace, good health, respect among peoples, and the warmth of family and friendships. Jim and I wish you all a very happy and wonderful New Year.

Looking ahead, I have an image in my mind of what synagogue represents. To me, it is a three-pillared organization. The first, of course, is spirituality. I find the combination of prayer and music an experience that strengthens me and calms me at the same time. I can forget any concerns on my mind and breathe deeply, knowing I have been gifted with an ability to cope.

The second pillar is community. Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation, put simply, is us. It is all of us. We may come from completely different backgrounds and experiences, yet we are here now as one. Individually, we contribute to a whole that puts forth an important face to the world. Yes, as a people we have been threatened and made fearful at times, even worse. But we are strong. Especially as a congregation primarily composed of "seniors," one way we choose to show who we are is by defining ourselves through our membership in an institution that is communal. When I sit on the bima each month and look out, it is overwhelmingly heartening to see all of you sitting there and participating in our shared Jewish activity.

Beyond spirituality and community, the third pillar, fiscal stability, is much more pragmatic. To continue to exist—to thrive, actually—we need fiscal stability. The Board of Directors meets monthly to discuss and make decisions that affect the fiscal stability of Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation. These decisions, among others, include our dues structure, our pricing plans for such things as guest tickets for High Holiday services, and our pricing plans for community catered events such as the Break-the-Fast and the community Seder. All these decisions are informed by what costs we know we will incur (i.e. salaries, rent, insurance, member services, committee expenses, etc.) as well as estimates of dues, donations, and other income sources. The sensible decisions of the Board of Directors have led us to function within reasonable and stable budgetary guidelines.

Yet all of these pillars depend totally on you. It is your commitment to membership and to donations that allows Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation to continue to be a viable Jewish institution. It is also your commitment to perpetuate traditional and new activities by your volunteerism, financial support, and attendance. But we need more of you and from you. We have so many capable individuals among us—we need you to step up and join the Board of Directors or lead single activities. Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation is only as strong as its members, and our success over time has come about because we have developed effective leadership. I am speaking to each of you personally. Every one of you has something to contribute. As we look forward to this new year, won't you say yes to our SLJC community?

Congregant's Thank you Notes

We thank you for your expressions of sympathy on the death of our sister-in-law, Shirley Codkind. Your kindness is very much appreciated.

The Codkind Family

It is difficult to find words that will adequately express my gratitude for all the love, concern, assistance, calls and cards from my SLJC family.

So I will simply say THANK YOU - you have touched myheart!!!

Appreciatively, Shirley Gersten

DEC 15 Chanukah Party

Men's Club

The Men's Club is a social organization that meets the first Tuesday of the month from September through June. We have interesting speakers from our community to address our membership each of these months. Guests are always invited, and refreshments are provided. The organization also has special lunches as well as various site visits in the local area. The Temple membership is encouraged to be members of the Men's Club to enable fellowship throughout our Jewish Community and achieve our social responsibility as a Jewish Community. Membership dues are due on July 1st each year. It is truly the BEST DEAL in town.

Men's Club also collects non-perishable food for local food banks prior to monthly services curbside in front of the Chapel. Sheldon Kruger has been performing this activity and reports the amount of food collection each the month. However, Sheldon can no longer perform this due to illness and a volunteer or volunteers are needed for this very helpful and needed service. Please donate and consider volunteering for this needed service!

The next meeting is scheduled for September 3rd at 6:30pm at the Chapel Center. Our speaker will be Author Howard Gershkowitz. As always, wives and prospective members are always welcome. Mr. Gershkowitz the author of "The Operator: How I Wrote and Published My First Novel." The Annual Lox and Bagel Brunch is scheduled for September 22, 2019 for paid-up members. Mark your calendars!

Future speakers are Author and Stress expert Bill Svoboda, Jewish Free Loan Association; Phoenix, Jewish Free Loan Association Phoenix; and Kim Moyers- Downtown Chandler Development Director. A visit is also scheduled for the PING Golf Club Factory 17-18 October 2019. Many have signed up for this event and there are still some openings. Future events, visits, and lunches are being planned.

For further information contact Steve Horowitz stevehorowitz@windstream.net

Reminder: Annual Dues of $30.00 is now due for the 2019/2020 season. Send checks to Sy Evans at 26421 S. New Town, Sun Lakes, AZ 85248.

Members Outreach Activity

Our Rabbi will be sharing lunch with the Jewish residents of the Renaissance on September 30th (Immediately following services). An invitation will be given to each resident to participate and have an informal discussion as well as reminisce about past High Holidays and the beauty of the season.

It is an opportunity to join together and share the joy of the holiday together.

Adult Education

SLJC is planning a very exciting program for the year 2019-20. Rabbi Wiener and the Adult Education committee will be presenting many opportunities to attend courses this coming year.

Starting in September right before the High Holidays, on September 24th, Rabbi Wiener will present a very interesting talk on "Preparing for the High Holidays." This lecture will be giving you all the information you need to better understand these holidays and will answer any questions you might have.

On October 29th, Rabbi Wiener will continue his talks on a very important subject that concerns us all entitled "Aging Gracefully." This will deal with both physical and emotional changes that we begin to observe. This will be a gentle talk that will benefit all attending; finding ways of keeping positive and active at this time in our lives.

All lectures will take place at the Chapel Center from 1:00-2:30. Please call Gail at 480-802-1832 and let her know you will be attending. Looking forward to hearing from you.

HOLD THE FOLLOWING DATES:

January 28th, 2020: We are planning a very exciting Panel featuring leaders from diverse religions and cultures. They will be sharing what makes us more alike than different: Rituals on Birth, Coming of Age, and Marriage. Jewish, Muslim, Native American, Christian and Hispanic. Very exciting! Be there; Mark it down. Please call and make a reservation. Gail 480-802-1832

March 24th, 2020: We will be continuing our Panel discussion. This time the subjects to be discussed by our panel will be The Rituals Surrounding Death and the Beliefs About After Life.

Don't miss these exciting opportunities. We are working hard for you to make this year special for you.

Put down these dates and call Gail 480-802-1832 for reservations.

We will be continuing the Shabbat Salon Films More information to follow.

ADDENDUM:

Rabbi Wiener has been asked by NAILS to be a lecturer for their adult classes at the Chandler/Gilbert College on Riggs and Alma School. He will be holding three classes, November 5, 12, and 19th at 1:00. Sign up for his classes. The subject will be: "Various Aspects of Human Characteristics: Humility, Character, Joy, Pain, Miracles and Love." Sign up early before the classes are full.

Tech in Israel and the Power of the American; Impacting US Israel Relations beyond Political Advocacy

Lieb Bolel, CEO of the Arizona Israel Technology Alliance will speak about bilateral trade between Israeli companies and Arizona. Since its inception in October 2017, Leib, founder of the Alliance, has increased from 12 to 18 the number of Israeli companies with operations in Arizona. The AITA has supported more the 100 companies seeking to increase ties to Arizona, and has led many trade delegations to Israel. His efforts, in collaboration with the state government, led to the future creation of an Arizona Trade Office in Israel.

Lieb's knowledge of the Israeli Tech scene is unmatched by anyone in Arizona. He has had many personal experiences to share. His perspective will be enlightening and will also generate pride in Israel and now the Arizona connection. Don't miss it!

Lone Soldier Program

Our third annual Hanukkah Greeting Letter Campaign will begin in September. Rather than handing out packets to all congregants at Rosh Hashanah services, they will be available in the lobby starting with the September 13th Shabbat Service and all services through November 8th Shabbat Services. The completed letters can be returned at the same times. Arrangements are being discussed to have letters also written at meetings of SLJC affiliate organizations.

The recipients of your letters love the fact that you have taken the time to acknowledge and support them. The letters enhance their holiday experience and energize them to meet the challenges of being in the IDF. Let them know the SLJC cares!! The campaign is being expanded to include the entire Phoenix Valley with a Youth Education Program. Committee members(all SLJC members) will presenting programs about Lone Soldiers to 15 congregations and day schools in the valley, with all of the students writing/drawing letters to Lone Soldiers. If you would like to join this effort, contact Michael Cohen at 480 895 4660 All letters from this year's campaign will be distributed through Chayal el Chayal, The Michael Levin Lone Soldier Center and Osey Chail (a group that supports ultra-orthodox Lone Soldiers).

Shalom Hadassah

Even though the temperature is still over 100 degrees, our summer hiatus is over. Shalom Hadassah has a wonderful lineup of events this year that you won't want to miss! Our kick-off Movie Day on Sept. 17th is "The Goldfinch" starring Nicole Kidman. Since the movie is premiering only days before, we do not have the time of the a.m. show (usually around 10:30) or which theater. Watch for our e-blast for exact information. Lunch will follow at Stone & Barrel at the Oakwood Clubhouse around 12:30. For further information contact Esther Spear at librolady@hotmail.com

Save The Date- October 15th - from 12 – 2:00 p.m. for our popular Potluck Lunch at the home of Barbara Silverman. More information will be forthcoming as we get closer to the date!

Our assisted living is accredited for two reasons. You. And your family.

Because having the confidence & peace of mind of accreditation is important. That's why SRG communities are accredited by CARF International. It's an independent organization that sets exceedingly high standards for care and service. It's a lot like an accreditation for a hospital or college. Or a five-star rating for a hotel.

We think you'll find that our accreditation is only one of the many reasons you'll like what you see.
