A Time to Rejoice

King Solomon, in his wisdom, taught that there is nothing new under the sun. Benjamin Franklin went further by declaring that there are only two things that are constant – death and taxes. Both expressions are lessons in life. We may think that there are things in life that are sure, but the reality is that generational continuance is the only constant, because without it everything we know would cease to be. So much for the examples offered by Solomon and Benjamin Franklin.

The glue that keeps life meaningful is also the knowledge that when we are a memory, the next episode of perseverance will occur. This has been and continues to be the design of creation. There was a beginning, but there is no end.

We do have a part in guaranteeing the future. All is not left in the hands of some mysterious force – the one we refer to as God. Our lives, and how we live them, play an active role in the original intent of creation. Traditions begin to take shape, and from these traditions develop customs and humanities connections. Society becomes the grouping of these concepts until we finally arrive at a concept of conduct and adherence.

Hanukkah is, and was, designed to teach these important aspects of attempting to understand our place. It started with love – the love of our Creator, and the love of all who are important in our lives. If memory is the glue for life's meaning, then love is the cement that forms the foundation of the journey begun with our first breath.

Our pilgrimage encompasses compassion and strength. As we travel, we learn about awareness – the informed values enhanced by faith. Faith may seem like an abstract, but if we really think about it, we should realize that without faith there is no hope.

Our congregation will not be commemorating Hannukah this year (November 29- December 6) because it occurs in-between our November service and our December service. However, we have an opportunity to continue the traditions of this holiday in our homes which is where they are traditionally celebrated.

These traditions include but are not limited to the lighting of the Menorah commemorating the eight days of this festival as described in the Talmud; the eating of latkes, or other fried foods, to remind us of the oil used to light the Menorah in the Temple; the various games that are played with children and grandchildren to remind us of the joyous event of the survival of our faith. Some congregations read from the Book of the Maccabees in which the entire episode of the struggle for religious freedom can be found.

We cannot long forget that last year brought us agony and despair. Therefore, this year we should concentrate on gratitude and appreciation. This is important not only because we have survived this nightmare, but also because we need to understand and appreciate what salvation is.

A Midrash, I believe, explains it this way: "When the Angels objected to the creation of man, God replied: 'And of what use are all the good things I have created unless people are there to enjoy them?'"

Perhaps it should be the same for us. There is so much loveliness in the world regardless of the frightening episodes we encounter. In addition, we need to enhance the goodness that exists. Hanukkah does all this as we learn to understand the value and purpose of our beliefs and the fulfillment received from these traditions.

There may be nothing new under the sun, but perhaps we should realize that each day brings newness to our lives and that translates into hope for the future. No matter how one feels about holidays or celebrations, the truth remains that they are designed to enhance our lives and add meaning to them. 🕯️

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Beginning Wednesday, December 8 at 1 p.m. in the Chapel Center

We announce the formation of a second grief support group. (The first has been meeting at Robson Reserve with a long break due to COVID.)

Bobby Sachs, a trained and experienced grief counselor and a member of SLJC, will facilitate the meetings, which will be scheduled on a continuing basis on the second Wednesday of every month at the Chapel Center a 1 p.m.

We all grieve in different ways and on different timetables.

Whether you have lost a spouse, partner, parent, sibling, child/grandchild, or close friend, loss brings on many unresolved feelings. This group represents a safe environment in which to listen and possibly share your own feelings.

There is no charge for this group. Masks are optional, but for everyone's safety, please do not attend if you haven't been vaccinated for COVID.

ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE RESPONDING TO LOCAL ANTISEMITISM

The Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation Men's Club has scheduled Marc Krell, ADL Associate Regional Director, to speak at the next meeting on Tuesday, January 4 at 6:30 p.m. at the Chapel Center. The entire congregation is welcome to attend this event.

Marc will talk about the recent antisemitic incident at the Chandler Unified School Board meeting as well as the history of antisemitism in the Valley and the Jewish community's response.

CO-PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

GERI GOULD & WENDE LEVY

Well, this is our last message as your co-presidents. There's not too much to say, except how grateful we are to so many people (and, yes, we hope to name at least some of them). We know SLJC will be in excellent hands with the return of Shelly Henden at the helm. With her experience and love for the congregation, we will have a good future.

To start with, we want to thank Rabbi Irwin Wiener for his guidance, inspiration, and mentorship. He has always lent a great ear and encouraged us — allowed us — to disagree with him or to point out all sides to an issue. His wisdom and decency have always guided us. In addition, his pragmatic and helpful actions have made SLJC a more stable congregation.

As well, also on the professional side, we are so grateful to Cantor Ronda Polesky for her willingness and flexibility to add beauty and lovely music to the services. Together with Choir Director Lana Oyer, accompanist par excellence Shea Marshall, and our talented and committed choir, we have all benefitted from both familiar and surprising melodies and spiritual moments. So, thank you all.

No congregation can function without a myriad of volunteers, and although we continually beg for more, over the years we have been blessed with so many talented and willing congregants. Every time you participate in an event or receive a communication from us, there people behind those efforts whom you may not see or even hear about. And, fortunately for us all, there are way too many of them to name (and with our aging brains, we do not want to omit anyone by accident). Thank you all.

Finally, we want to thank you, all the congregants of SLJC. In this last couple of years in particular, we have faced very challenging times that called for a great deal of patience and flexibility on everyone's part. It has been so gratifying to know that our experiments with YouTube and Zoom have kept us connected and that you have been willing to accept new ways of coming together as a Jewish community so we could all act responsibly. That is even true to this day with masking and "go-negs." You have risen to a very exacting occasion. Thank you!

We now face a new year, hopefully with fewer global health problems and a return to whatever becomes normal. We have just held our Annual Meeting and elected some new members of the Board of Directors, and we welcomed 19 new members to our congregation. We will continue to champion reasonable new ideas and pray that we all stay healthy and be a part of our prospering Jewish community here at SLJC. 🕯️

HAVURAH CHAI JEWISH SINGLES GROUP

May you be blessed with gifts of love, peace, health and happiness this Hanukkah.

As our Havurah Chai group gets closer to a New Year, many plans are being made for monthly events and lunches.

December 5th is our annual Chanukah Celebration with Dinner and a $10 Gift Exchange. We will meet at the Chapel House at 4:30 p.m.

- January 1, on New Year's Day, there will be an appetizer dinner buffet.
- February will bring us a fun challenge at an indoor miniature indoor golf course.
- March is time to remember your mom's best recipes. Bring a recipe that was a "mom favorite" for a delicious dinner (along with a recipe).
- In April we will be sailing on a Dolly Steamboat Cruise with lunch and viewing the beautiful scenery.

Our membership is growing and it is a great place to make new friends. There are no dues, just your smile. We can provide transportation for those who don't drive.

The Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation has been very helpful and inviting for all our six years. You are welcome to attend Shabbat Services the 2nd Friday of the month as well as taking part in social activities. Thank you to SLJC.

For more information about Havurah Chai, please contact Lainy Sardina at (480) 895-0974 or lainysardina@gmail.com.

SOMETHING YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW

THE MOST FAMOUS AMERICAN SHABBOS GOY

By Murray Siegel

A Shabbos Goy is a non-Jew who is kind enough to perform tasks for Orthodox Jews on the Sabbath when these tasks are forbidden to be done by Jew. Examples would be turning on the lights in a synagogue or a store or starting a fire in the fireplace. Who is the most famous American Shabbos Goy that you know? You may be surprised by the answer.

We must go back to the Bronx in the 1950s where a family of Russian Jewish immigrants owned a store selling baby goods. They hired a young local teenager to work in the summer and during the Christmas sale season. This young man was the son of West Indian immigrants. He quickly proved to be hard-working. Since the owners and many of their customers spoke in Yiddish, the young man learned enough of the language to communicate effectively. As he became well known in the neighborhood, he was asked to perform tasks of a Shabbos Goy for some of the customers he had befriended.

The young man went on to City College of New York where many of his classmates were Jewish, and he fit in very nicely despite having darker skin than most. He was an ROTC cadet and accepted a commission in the Army where he rose in rank. His outstanding leadership abilities allowed him to become a general, and he received promotions ahead of his peers. While visiting Israel after the Gulf War in 1993, he spoke with Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir and greeted the PM using Yiddish. This was quite shocking for an Israeli to have a Black U.S. Army general address him in Yiddish.

Who was this Yiddish-speaking American general? He was Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and U.S. Secretary of State. Unfortunately, he has been in the news recently due to his being overcome by COVID in October. The former Shabbos Goy was none other than Colin Powell (z"l). Now you know! 🙏

LONE SOLDIER PROJECT

THE LEVIN LONE SOLDIER CENTER CELEBRATES THANKSGIVING

Donations to our Lone Soldiers Project are sent directly to Israel to support vital celebrations. You can make your donation online at evjcc.org/lone-soldier-campaign.

While Thanksgiving Day is an American holiday, many of the themes are universal and reach across the oceans from North America to Israel. It is a time when Lone Soldiers from North America miss their families most so The Lone Soldier Center steps in to meet their needs.

Since the founders started the LSC, they have hosted a large celebration each year with as many as 1,000 Lone Soldiers and friends. In the past, they have had special guests join them, such as Ambassador Michael Oren, Defense Minister Naftali Bennett, and others.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD

Our best wishes to Rita Solko for a complete recovery from her recent shoulder surgery.

SLJC wishes Harvey Weiner a speedy recovery.

SLJC sends condolences to Diane Posniack on the recent death of her brother, David Holstein.

Thank you to everyone who called or texted me, sent over a meal, mailed me a "Get Well Card" or contacted Mike to see how I was doing. It was very much appreciated. I'm doing well, just moving a little slower and not bending as much. I look forward to seeing everyone in person soon. Thanks again!
— Evey Freed

WANT AD: We need volunteers to work on the Community Seder, Saturday, April 16. We have already reserved the Palo Verde Dining Room for this event. They have done this for us before and know the ropes. If you are able and willing, please call Shelly Henden at (480) 895-8851.

Please submit Bulletin Board posting requests to Geri Gould at gerijim@hotmail.com.

SLJC MEN'S CLUB

The Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation Men's Club enjoyed their first in-person event recently to kick off their 2021/2022 season — lunch at Portillo's followed by a Fall League baseball game at Sloan Park in Mesa. There was great food and fellowship for all who attended.

The Men's Club is a social organization affiliated with the Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation. Meetings are held monthly from September to June of each year featuring interesting guest speakers from the community. There are also lunches, dinners, and field trips to attractions in and around the Phoenix area.

For membership information, contact Marty Levine, marteleee@hotmail.com or Jeff Spear, jeff.spear@gmail.com.

MEMORIAL DEDICATION SY EVANS

All of us remember different things about the people we know. Each time we recall events in a person's life, we think about the part we played in that adventure. One of the people who had an impact on us as a congregation was Sy Evans. His family donated one of the smaller Torah Scrolls resting in our Ark.

At our regular Shabbat Service on December 10 at 7 p.m., we will dedicate this Torah and extend our gratitude to the family of Sy Evans for this lasting tribute.

Hadassah News from Israel

Newsweek Recognizes Excellence of Specialties at Hadassah Ein Kerem

Hadassah proudly announces that its tertiary care hospital in Jerusalem, Hadassah Hospital Ein Kerem, is named among the best 250 hospitals in the world in two specialties: cardiology and oncology. Recognized in the latest rating, which appeared in a Newsweek magazine survey for 2022, are the Irma and Paul Milstein Heart Center, headed by Prof. Offer Amir, and the Sharett Institute of Oncology, headed by Prof. Aron Popovtzer.

This is the third year that Newsweek has partnered with Statista, Inc., a respected global data research firm, to determine the best hospitals in the world. The ranking includes 25 countries, selected mainly on standard of living/life expectancy, population size, number of hospitals and data availability. The ratings are based on recommendations from medical experts, results of patient surveys and key performance indicators on hospital care.

SAVE THE DATES

Rabbi Wiener will be offering a two-part series on Sundays, January 11 and 18 from 12-1:30 p.m. at the Chapel Center. Rabbi Wiener's discussion will be entitled "The Separation of Church and State... What Happened?" This particular subject is very important in today's society and is one of the hallmarks of our Constitution. The two-part series begins with the intent and historical background from 1776-1940 and the second part will bring us up to present day and all its problems.

Come join us and bring a "Brown Bag" lunch as we nourish both our minds and bodies. Drinks will be available. Since this is our first live presentation since the pandemic, vaccinations, masks, and reservations will be required.

To make your reservation or to learn more, please call Gail Dante at (480) 802-1832.
