Duty, Honor, Country

At precisely 11 am on the 11th day of the 11th month in the year 1918, the “war to end all wars” concluded. If the people who experienced the nightmare known as World War Two are spoken of as the “Greatest Generation,” then I submit to you that the wave of humanity fighting in World War I should be called the “Naïve Generation.”

There was no glory to speak of, only the gory mess of millions dead and millions more maimed, their lives forever destroyed. The only things that came out of that horrific episode in humanity’s quest to kill were seeds that involved us in the next encounter leading to all the wars that followed.

Wars have been with us since time immemorial. When we do not understand someone or do not like the color of a person’s skin or the tone in a voice or spoken thoughts, we take up arms to destroy that which is different.

As Americans, we know very well what that means. We have visited the shadow of death in a Revolution, a Civil War, the Bataan Death March, the Holocaust (as we liberated the camps of evil), Korean War, Vietnam War, Iraq War, and Afghanistan War. Some of us have been victims of discrimination in the workplace, in schools, in the arts. Yet, Americans have contributed immeasurably to the betterment of society – the betterment of the human experience – because of a secret ingredient called liberty.

Our ancestors found a haven on these shores. It was not an easy journey. We arrived here from distant lands where we felt the wrath of indifference and contempt. We have been tested repeatedly. The immigrants who travelled great distances to enjoy the smell of freedom and contentment struggled, but through it all they understood that anything worth having is worth the sacrifice necessary to achieve it.

Each generation of Americans answered the call of their country because we knew, as Jeremiah instructed us, “Seek the welfare of the land... and pray to the Lord on this land’s behalf; for in its welfare shall you find your welfare.” (Jeremiah 29:7) Yes, we even took up arms to ensure this freedom and security for all the people of this great land – not just the rich or the poor, but also everyone who lives in this beacon of hope. We were not born soldiers. We were farmers or tailors or musicians or laborers trying to earn a living to support our families and bring those less fortunate to be with us as we began a new life in a new land.

We became soldiers, airmen, sailors, and marines. We fought and some of us died and some of us were injured beyond repair, yet we came to the aid of our America. We stand here proud of our contribution to liberty and equality for all. Every American fought side by side. We cheered when the brave came home from battle as we thanked God for our survival as well. We danced in the streets when wars ended because we loved our liberty. Those around the world who hate us never understood that.

We honor all who served and continue to serve because it is the right thing to do: commemorating the sacrifices made guaranteeing freedom for the generations that follow, as was done for us. Each generation takes that responsibility upon itself.

We should always pray that the dreams that brought us to this day not be lost. May those who continue to be in harm’s way find their way back in safety and may we never lose sight of the sacrifice for Duty, Honor and Country. This is what it means to be an American. 🇺🇸

Join with us on Friday, November 11 at 7 pm at our Erev Shabbat services as we honor members of our congregation who have served our country and continue to be involved in Veterans’ affairs.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SHELLY HENDEN

Looking Back and Looking Ahead

As always, our Kol Nidre service was outstanding and inspiring. Our cellist, Jan Simez, who has been with us for 18 years, was most certainly a highlight.

Our service this month on Friday, November 11 (Veterans Day) is again honoring our JWV Post 619, and as usual, they will be participating in the Service.

Our fundraising continues with Fry's, AmazonSmile, in addition to dinners out and the Hale Theatre (see the article below for information).

With a heavy heart and tears, we had to say goodbye to our beloved Shea Marshall, our most talented accompanist for the last 18 years. (He started with us when he was a sophomore at ASU.) We wish him our very best for a bright future in his new career in Las Vegas. With that said, we are very fortunate to have acquired a very talented lady, Jeanette Cline, to take over. (You can read her bio on the opposite page.)

Mark your calendars for our annual Congregational Meeting on Tuesday, November 15 at 7 pm in the Chapel Center. We will hold an election for new board members, discuss other pertinent Temple business and hear a very short presentation from a speaker from the JCC.

As always, if you have any concerns or questions, please do not hesitate to call me. 📞

SLJC FUNDRAISER

JOIN US AT THE HALE THEATRE!

Our congregation purchased a block of tickets for shows this fall at the Hale Theatre, a theater-in-the-round located at 50 W. Page Ave. in Gilbert. These performances will provide a chance to get together, see a show, maybe have a nosh in Downtown Gilbert, and raise some much-needed funds for our Congregation. All shows will be matinees at 4 pm.

The first show will be Sister Act on Saturday, November 12 at 4 pm. Ticket price is $40. To make your reservation, please call Marcia Weiner at (480) 802-9455 or Shelley Schwartz at (480) 802-3608. Though the remainder of the shows we are planning are months away it is important to make your reservations with Marcia or Shelley as soon as possible so we know how many people are planning to attend.

Here is what is on the landscape: The Andrews Brothers on Tuesday, January 24 (a musical about a USO performance from the Andrews Sisters who fail to appear, so three stagehands take over in their places as they are determined that the show must go on). The show is filled to the brim with over 30 hit tunes made famous by the Andrews Sisters. The other upcoming shows are 42nd Street on Saturday March 11 and Bye Bye Birdie on Saturday, May 20. We hope you can join the fun!

WELCOMING JEANETTE CLINE

SLJC'S NEW ACCOMPANIST

Jeanette is originally from Northwest Ohio, but in 1963 she and her husband moved to Arizona. Prior to moving from Tempe to Sun Lakes twelve years ago, Mrs. Cline was an educator in the Tempe Schools for 30 years. She was also a piano, organ, keyboard, and cello instructor with the Cline Music Studio. Jeanette has served many years as a church musician, playing organ or piano or in choral directing. For several years Jeanette attended the International Music Workshop's Piano Division in Austria, Norway, France, Australia, Scotland and Hawaii.

Jeanette Cline has been very musically involved in the Sun Lakes community. She is director/arranger for the Keyboard Connection, a group of 12 playing piano keyboards in ensemble-that may be the likes of a Caribbean band or a string orchestra. She also sings in the Sun Lakes Chorale and is presently board president for that group. Jeanette is music coordinator for the Sun Lakes Women's Connection and is accompanist for various musicians.

In the fall of 2021, she was in concert with duo piano keyboards at the Oakwood Ballroom. Mrs. Cline was music director and keyboardist for the Sun Lakes Theater Broadway show, CHARLIE BROWN, in early 2020. You may also hear her playing background music for some community luncheon or event.

She and her husband, Gene, enjoy all things musical. They love to travel. And in her spare time Jeanette loves to have tea luncheons. The Clines have two daughters, one who lives in England and one who recently moved from out-of-state to the community. They also have six grandchildren living in England or various US states.

SLJC SISTERHOOD

Upcoming Sessions: Thursday, November 17, 1 pm, Chapel House

The next meeting of the Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation Sisterhood will be on Thursday, November 17 at 1 pm in the Chapel House. The speaker is Jody Crago, Director of the Chandler Museum. Jody will tell the fascinating story of Frank Lloyd Wright and his connection to Chandler's history.

Save the dates for these future activities: a fun-filled Hanukkah Party on December 15, and a Luncheon and Fashion Show with clothing and accessories by Callie Rose on March 27. At the Fashion Show there will be lots of gift baskets, restaurant gift cards, raffles, and a bake sale of delicious home-baked goods. For further information contact Esther at: librolady@hotmail.com.

THANK YOU VETERANS

LONE SOLDIER PROJECT

LONE SOLDIER VETERAN FROM THE FAMOUS FLYING TIGER SPECIAL OPERATIONS UNIT OF THE IDF TO SPEAK AT JOINT PROGRAM WITH SLJC'S MEN'S CLUB

Chris Stanford will speak on November 1 at 7 pm at the Chapel Center. (Social time starts at 6:30 pm.)

After Basic Training, Chris entered the IDF in the heralded Golani Brigade, often known as the top Combat Unit. Once there he applied and went through the grueling selection process for the Special Operations Reconnaissance Unit. Over 200 started training with fewer than 20 finally serving in the Flying Tigers. This unit's work is very dangerous as it is gathers military intelligence (at times behind enemy lines), which is essential to successful IDF operation.

Chris will go into detail about his experience as a Lone Soldier in the IDF's most elite unit and share photos and videos that reflect his and other's experience. He will also mention the challenges of being a Lone Soldier as well as what the experience has meant in his life.

After Chris's story and Q & A, the group will be asked to write Hanukkah Greeting messages to Lone Soldiers currently on active duty in the IDF.

LONE SOLDIER PROJECT

PARTICIPATE IN THE HANUKKAH GREETING CARD CAMPAIGN

The Lone Soldier Project's Annual Hanukkah Greeting Campaign has begun and I would like to offer you two electronic options to participate.

The holidays are the loneliest time of the year for the lone soldiers, who come from 80 countries around the world and from Israel. The Israeli lone soldiers do not have a welcoming home to receive them during the holidays. Lone Soldiers tell us that our messages energize them to return to their duty in the IDF and defend the Jewish homeland, knowing that people from around the world appreciate the courageous efforts they are making to keep Israel secure.

Here are some ideas about what to write about:

- A Happy Hanukkah greeting
- Anything that come from your heart
- Appreciation for their courage

- A recognition of the sacrifices they are making
- Any connection to the IDF or Israel
- Any personal Zionist feelings you may want to share

You can upload your message that we will convert to a Hanukkah Card and send to Israel for distribution by following these directions:

Send your message in an email to lonesoldiers@evjcc.org

OR

Visit evjcc.org/greetings to upload your greeting by tapping "Write a Letter or Upload Artwork." Start your message with "Name."

If you have any questions, please call Michael Cohen at (480) 895-4660 or email me at lonesoldiers@evjcc.org.

Please submit Bulletin Board posting requests to Geri Gould at gerijim@hotmail.com.

FRIENDS OF ISRAEL

TRUTHFUL, COMPLETE NEWS FROM ISRAEL

Anti-Israel bias in mainstream International and U.S. print and broadcast media is well documented. This bias is especially true concerning Israel-Palestinian relations and conflict.

Examples:

- After a terrorist attack in Jerusalem in which two Palestinian attackers tried to stab police and were shot, CBS described the incident on its website with the following headline in a story about the attack: “3 Palestinians killed as daily violence grinds on.”
- An AP headline reads “Israeli policeman shot a man in East Jerusalem,” which, in actuality, followed a car-ramming terror attack or a shooting attack in which a baby and a young girl were murdered. This framing is often apparent in their coverage of Gaza.
- CNN and the Guardian reports “4 Israelis and 2 Palestinians dead in Jerusalem.” Actually, the two Palestinians carried out the attack and were only shot by police after their brutal murder of innocent worshippers during the morning service.

Sources of Truthful, complete Israel news:

- Honest Reporting
- Honest Reporting Canada
- Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting and Analysis (CAMERA)
- Fact and Logic about the Middle East (FLAME)

Each of these resources will send you free updates about Israel.

SOMETHING YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW

DANA RUTH SCHWARTZ

By Murray Siegel

As a child, I was always amazed to find out that some famous person whose name did not indicate that he or she was Jewish actually was a Jew. For example, when I discovered that Tony Curtis was born Bernie Schwartz, I had a hard time believing that, but it was true. Those of us who were watching CNN a few months ago heard correspondent Dana Bash, when introducing her upcoming special report on anti-Semitism, reveal that she was Jewish.

Dana recounted how her son asked her to buy him a Jewish star to wear in public to challenge those who hated Jews. Research revealed that she was the daughter of Jewish parents. She married Jeremy Bash, CIA and DoD Chief of Staff under President Obama, in 1998, and used her married name professionally. They divorced in 2007, and she married CNN correspondent John King in 2008. The Kings had a son in 2011 and divorced in 2012.

Dana is currently the co-host with Jake Tapper of the Sunday morning “State of the Union” show on CNN.

She earned a degree in political communications from George Washington U, interned at various networks while at GWU, and joined CNN after graduation.

JEWISH WAR VETERANS COPPER STATE POST 619

CHANDLER MILITARY AND VETERANS COMMISSION CHAIR TO SPEAK AT JEWISH WAR VETERANS NOVEMBER MEETING

Sunday, November 22, 10 am, Poolside Building, Oakwood Country Club, 24218 S. Oakwood Blvd., Sun Lakes

Robert (Bob) Dalpe, Chair of the Chandler Military and Veterans Commission, will address The Jewish War Veterans Copper State Post 619. The Chandler Military and Veterans Commission was established after a multiyear campaign of several veterans' leaders (including Bob). The commission was created to honor, represent, and support the military and veteran residents of the City of Chandler. Several events are planned to include a free Veterans Breakfast on November 4, a Veterans Day event on November 11 at the Veterans Oasis Park, a veterans town hall on December 3 and an event to honor those willing to join the military scheduled for May.

Bob Dalpe is a familiar name to every Veterans organization in Phoenix as he is the person they call when they need help. The request may come from a congressional or senate office, any one of the many 501c3 veterans' organizations, or a veteran in need of help. Bob works with all of them and knows the right place to send someone for help.

Bob's main contact is the Veterans Medical Leadership Council focusing on the Native American Sustainability programs. He has helped them with housing issues, establishing a Veterans Nursing home in the Navajo Nation, and organizing a program to deliver solar systems and refrigerators to 11 members of the Navajo Veterans' community who were not connected to the electrical grid, thereby providing refrigeration to store insulin for their diabetes.

Complimentary bagels, lox, and coffee start at 9:30 am, followed by the speaker at 10 am. Everyone is invited and there is no charge, but to partake in the food, a reservation is required by Friday, November 18, at 5 pm by contacting Joyce Spartonos preferably by email joytoyspartonos@aol.com or (480) 802-4902.

JWV Post 619, which meets the third Sunday of the month from September-May, boasts members who represent a wide range of religious affiliations and participates in philanthropic activities to help Jewish and non-Jewish veterans. Fundraising activities enable the Post to accomplish their mission of supporting hospitalized, at-risk and veterans experiencing homelessness. To learn more about JWV activities and membership, contact Commander Chuck Wolin (602) 300-5913 or cjsunlakes@msn.com.
