A New Year

Time seems to have a way of escaping us no matter how we try to hold on to it. It also seems that we close our eyes for a moment and when we open them, we feel as though we have traveled to another time, another place. What happened to yesterday? Was it just a moment ago when we felt the flow of energy that gave us the impetus for life's journey? It really doesn't matter because here and now we are getting ready to celebrate a New Year.

A New Year gives us many opportunities to not only cast off the past but look forward to the future as well. This year, however, we will commemorate another year together a little differently. The COVID-19 virus has caused us to reorganize our celebration while isolated from each other. But, please remember that we are not isolated from God. In fact, perhaps we can get even closer knowing that God is isolated as well from the encounters of collective prayers.

The doors of our synagogue are closed, but the essence of its enduring character is open to us if we take the time to understand its importance in our lives. Some will say that the synagogue is really not that important and is not the panacea for the continuation of Jewish survival, but rather adherence to traditions and laws and customs. To me the synagogue represents all these things and more.

The synagogue was designed to bring together all forms of religious observance. It was created to deliver a place and time for study and worship that otherwise would not be part of our daily expressions. How many set aside time for prayer or allocate time for study? We are busy with all sorts of issues that require time and money for everyday living. Perhaps there are occasions that draw our attention heavenward, but they are nowhere near the time needed for gratitude and sorrow.

Judaism without the centrality of the synagogue will not survive. Say what you will about organized religion; its purpose is undeniable: To maintain that tie that will ensure religious survival. I declare, here and now, that supporting the synagogue is tantamount to observing all the laws because it leads us to them. The Temple in Jerusalem was ordained because it was the focal point of all things holy and all things necessary for life. To hold the value of our synagogue in any less stature is to demean the essence of our heritage.

So here we are — a New Year, not only representing the march of time but also marking the belief in creation through the care and concern of nature. And, here we are welcoming and encouraging involvement in our religious life here in Sun Lakes (and beyond) so that this generation, and the ones that follow will point with pride as they proclaim, "This was done for me."

While we continue to encounter the difficulties of this dreaded disease, let us remember that when a new day dawns it will contain the wishes and aspirations of all who lived through these trying times. Our gratitude will be directed to a God who gave us the ability to survive which will allow us to express this thankfulness in the one place we can all come together — the synagogue!

I pray that each of us will witness a New Year filled with dreams and connections and celebrations. Then with one voice, in joyful chorus, we will pronounce the Shehechayanu prayer and truly understand it. 🕯️

HIGH HOLIDAY PROTOCOLS

This has been a challenging year so far, and it continues to be. While we all wish we could experience our services together, the Board of Directors, Rabbi Wiener, Cantor Ronda Polesky, and members of the Ritual Committee have joined Wendy and me in developing our plans for the High Holidays. We have taken into account the importance of maintaining good health and safety, and we have learned from medical experts and leaders of other temples (and many churches) that returning for live services right now is just not a good idea. Below is the protocol we will follow:

- We will present High Holiday services through our link on YouTube. You will be sent this link again.

- Rabbi Wiener will be answering any discussion questions you may have via YouTube on Monday, September 28, from 2:30 to 3:30 pm. You are invited to submit any questions to him via email (ravyitz@cox.net) in advance of Yom Kippur. The Rabbi will also have discussion topics as well.

- We will not have a Torah procession, but all the relevant Torah portions will be read.

- We expect all the services (listed above) to take about 90 minutes each, give or take.

- Instead of our customary congregational Break-the-Fast, we are offering prepared “box suppers” (consisting of all the items that would have been on the buffet table — bagels, nova lox, cream cheese,

- Services will be available at their regular times – 7 pm on Erev Rosh Hashanah (Friday, September 18) and Kol Nidrei (Sunday, September 27).

- Daytime services for Rosh Hashanah will be available from 10 am on Saturday, September 19.

- Yom Kippur morning services will be available from 10 am on Monday, September 28.

- Afternoon services for Yom Kippur, including Yizkor, will be available from 4 pm on Monday, September 28.

creamed herring, tuna salad, egg salad, vegetables, and dessert) at the same price listed in previous flyers-$15 and no cost for children under age 3. These box suppers must be ordered before Wednesday, September 16 and will be available for pick up at Cottonwood Ballroom from 5:30 to 6:30 pm on Monday, September 28. We’re hoping to have a drive-up delivery service. (See page 6 for the order form.)

- We will be distributing High Holiday prayer books for you to borrow so you can participate in the service at home. Distribution dates are Thursday, September 17 between 4 and 6 pm and Friday, September 18 between 9 and 11 am in front of the Chapel. Your books will be handed to you by a volunteer wearing a mask and gloves, and we would appreciate your wearing a mask as well.

- The return date for the books will be Tuesday, September 29 from 9 to 11 am and from 4 to 6 pm on the same day.

- The Book of Remembrance and Jewish calendars will be distributed on Thursday, September and Friday, September 18 with High Holiday prayer books. If you still want your loved ones to be remembered in this book, you must have your form (see page 7 for the form) and check filled out and returned to Susan and Michael Cohen by Wednesday, September 2.

- Services will be different, but we expect that they will still be beautiful and meaningful. Although we will not be together or able to enjoy our wonderful choir, we will still enjoy our fabulous cellist on Yom Kippur and will hear the Shofar at the end of Yom Kippur services on Monday afternoon as well as lovely music from Ronda and Shea.

- If you would like to have an aliyah, open/close the ark, or be involved in any way during the service, please contact Shelly Henden. You would come to the Chapel during taping of that particular service and be called for your honor with nobody in the pews and no choir. Usually the only people involved in the taping are Rabbi Wiener, Cantor Ronda, Shea Marshall, our audio technician, and the co-presidents. We all try to maintain social distancing.

- Because of the dates of the High Holidays, we will not hold regular Shabbat services in September. We will inform you about the plans for October and ensuing months as soon as we can.

This year has certainly brought us the unexpected, but we're trying very hard to make lemonade out of lemons. We hope you will continue to support Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation with your annual membership so that when we "open up" again, we will all be together as a strong Jewish community. Everyone on the Board of Directors joins our professionals in wishing you a safe, healthy, and happy New Year.

CO-PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

GERI GOULD AND WENDY FELDMAN-KERR

Depending on how you look at it, we have coped with an unusual year, to say the least. Summer is almost over and we are now throwing ourselves into planning for the coming months with a prayer for solutions to the pandemic so we can start getting together again.

As we head into our New Year, we want to especially thank Rabbi Wiener, Cantor Polesky, and Shea Marshall for their energy and creativity in putting together services and, in the case of our rabbi, weekly messages that have bound us together through these times requiring patience and hope. Earlier in this edition were the plans for the coming High Holiday services. Please be sure you read the plans carefully so you will be clear about all the stated dates, times, and places. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

We are so grateful to those of you who have already paid your dues for this coming year. Thank you. We urge everyone to send in your checks to Marilyn Koss. Our membership form with all the details is included later in this edition. We look forward to a terrific year with new ways of learning and praying together. Here's to a very healthy and happy New Year to you from Wendy and Geri. 🕎

HAVURAH CHAI JEWISH SINGLES GROUP

by Lainy Sardina

On Rosh Hashanah it is written... On Yom Kippur it is sealed. May it be written and may it be sealed that you have a New Year that brings fulfillment and happiness, peace and prosperity — all of life's very best things.

The Holy Days are a delicate blend of joy and solemnity, feasting and fasting, prayer, and inspiration.

We are all experiencing that "life" as we know it has come to a complete standstill. We also know that when we return to normal, Havurah Chai is ready and waiting with a "plethora" of great events and we are so excited to see all of you again.

In the meantime have a wonderful happy, healthy New Year!

FRIENDS OF ISRAEL

DISCUSSION & BOOK REVIEW

Sunday, October 25
3 - 4:30 pm

Susan Bondy will discuss the essential role that kibbutzim have played in the establishment and success of Israeli life. Her family was a founding member of Kibbutz Sasa on the Lebanon border in 1949. Her knowledge and insight will help us understand the vitality and necessity of kibbutz residents to the flourishing country that Israel is today.

This event will be held via Zoom and is free and open to the public. To receive Zoom access information, please email your name to israelsunlakes@gmail.com.

Book Review

We Stand Divided is by Daniel Gordis, a professor, historian and author of several award-winning books on Jewish thoughts and political currents in Israel.

Multiple surveys over the last year indicate that a strong majority of American Jews support Israel. This support has become more qualified over time, with many American Jews pointing to the lack of religious pluralism, dislike for Netanyahu, and the treatment of Palestinians as the reason. Gordis believes that this evolving divide actually began during the evolution of Zionism in the late 1800s.

The difference in perspective also relates to the different desires of Jews who emigrated to the U.S. compared to those settling in Israel during the great periods of Jewish relocation. Different views of democracy, Judaism as a nation state vs. a religion, the unequal engagement with Jewish history, and other reasons are explored. Gordis concludes with the impact of these attitudinal differences and some potential alternatives to the evolving trends.

This book is a major contribution to the understanding of the dynamics between American Jews and Israel, is very readable and cites many historical milestones for any desired further reading. I recommend the book as being a unique contribution to a very relevant topic to the future of global Judaism.

LONE SOLDIER PROJECT

SLJC BRINGS COMFORT TO SOLDIERS WITH COZY HATS

50 more knitted hats go to Lone Soldiers. Lone soldiers at three centers in Israel recently received home-knitted hats for IDF winter assignment. Since the project began, SLJC volunteers have knitted more than 190 hats. A local IDF veteran said that these hats were the most precious and useful gift he received while on active duty.

This is a year-round effort. If you are interested in becoming a knitter, please join the effort. It will make you feel good!

SLJC Sisterhood

PREPARATIONS FOR THE FUTURE

The Sisterhood Board of Directors had a virtual meeting recently to plan for many interesting activities in the future when we will be able to gather in groups once more. We will have our Annual Membership Luncheon and hope to combine the event with a baby shower for the Maternity Outreach for Moms Program. We will also reschedule the speaker from the Phoenix Art Museum.

In the past we have had our hugely successful Annual Card Party. Sisterhood was able to make donations to many local charities. The Board of Directors is coming up with new and creative ways to raise funds to help our community. You are encouraged to send in your membership dues if you have not already done so. The information on the form is confidential for Sisterhood use only. It will not be distributed or printed elsewhere. You may contact Anita at (480) 895-8203 to see if your membership is up to date.

Everyone at Sisterhood looks forward to seeing each other again at interesting meetings and social gatherings.

Thanks to Doris Codkind for offering this vignette:

The 92-year-old petite, well-poised and proud lady — legally blind — who is fully dressed each morning by eight o'clock with her hair fashionably coifed and makeup perfectly applied, moved to a nursing home today. Her husband of 70 years recently passed away, making the move necessary.

After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the nursing home, she smiled sweetly when told her room was ready. As she maneuvered her walker to the elevator, she was provided a visual description of her tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that had been hung on her window.

"I love it," she stated with the enthusiasm of an eight-year-old having just been presented with a new puppy. "But Mrs. Jones, you haven't seen the room. Just wait," said the attendant.

"That doesn't have anything to do with it," replied Mrs. Jones. "Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged; it's how I arrange my mind. I already decided to love it. It's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice; I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or I can get out of bed and be thankful for the ones that do.

"Each day is a gift, and as long as my eyes open, I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away just for this time in my life."

She went on to explain, "Old age is like a bank account, you withdraw from what you've put in. So, my advice to you would be to deposit a lot of happiness in the bank account of memories. I thank people for their part in filling my memory bank. I am still depositing."

And with a smile, she said, "Remember the five simple rules to be happy:

1. Free your heart from hatred.
2. Free your mind from worries.
3. Live simply.
4. Give more.
5. Expect less."

What a great philosophy to live by!

A Spiritual Journey

AN INTERFAITH PROGRAM

A three-part series featuring Reverend Vernon Meyer, of United Church of Christ, and Rabbi Irwin Wiener, D.D., of Sun Lakes Jewish Congregation. A link will be sent before each program.

COPING WITH ADVERSITY: October 13, 11 am

Understanding the difficulties we face and the miracle of coping. During these trying times, perhaps we need to concentrate on the best way to navigate from anxiety into a feeling of contentment.

GRATITUDE: November 25, 11 am

Is gratitude a gesture or a slogan? To truly be thankful requires a tolerance that will enable us to appreciate goodness and mercy.

CELEBRATION: December 15, 11 am

An Ecumenical program honoring Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Hanukkah. Through this collective celebration, we will better understand the meaning of salvation and redemption.

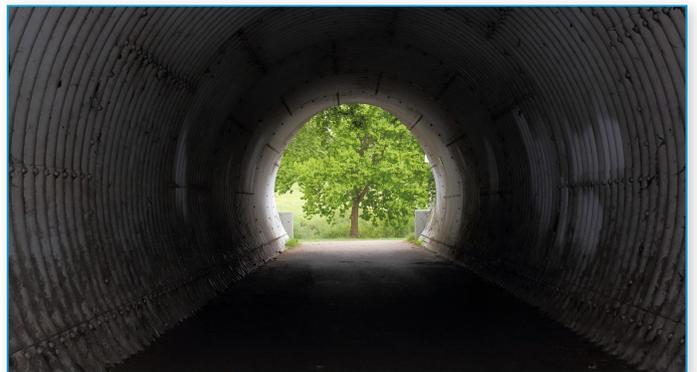

Shalom Hadassah

by Joyce Spantonos, Hadassah Publicity

Shalom Hadassah, as well as almost every organization, has felt the effects of this terrible pandemic, and wonders when we'll see, or even begin to see, the light at the end of the tunnel. All the terrific ideas Shalom Hadassah had for meetings of course are on indefinite hold.

However, even in these unprecedented times, we have what to be grateful for. As far as we can ascertain, none of our members of Shalom Hadassah have fallen ill from COVID-19, and that is truly a blessing. And, of course, the Jewish Holidays are right around the corner. Some Shalom Hadassah members may be fortunate enough to actually observe Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur in person with their families, while others will communicate via Zoom and other electronic means. In either case, we need to give thanks for what we have, rather than bemoan what we don't have.

Shalom Hadassah wishes each and every one of you a healthy and happy New Year! And please continue taking every precaution to remain safe so that when we can once again congregate, you will be right there with all of us.

In the meantime, if you have any ideas or suggestions for our chapter, please feel free to reach out to Barbara Silverman, President of Shalom Hadassah at bsilverman44@gmail.com. She is always happy to hear from the membership.

What Do We Learn From Scripture?

LECTURES BY RABBI IRWIN WIENER, D.D.

A two-part virtual series starting in October (dates to be announced).

1. The Prophets

Understanding what the Prophets are trying to teach us about our purpose in life, and the value we bring to each other. Some of the Prophetic writings certainly are as timely today as they were thousands of years ago.

2. The Scriptures

A modern interpretation of the lessons of the Bible. Each time we read a sentence or a chapter, the Bible can enlighten us as to its relevance in today's world of chaos and uncertainty.

DEVORAH HADASSAH

Devorah Hadassah is planning a virtual general meeting via Zoom in September. The date and time will be determined depending on speaker availability.

Sunday, September 6 & Monday, September 7

The Flick Chicks film will be Crossing Delancey. The 1988 film features Amy Irving as a young, Jewish socialite trying to have a career and meet "Mr. Right." The film will be appearing on Turner Classic Movies (TCM) on Sunday, September 6 at 1 pm, and the discussion will take place via Zoom on Monday, September 7. For any of you who may have seen this classic film as a young, Jewish professional, you can now view it from the perspective of a retiree.

Wednesday, September 9, 1:30 pm

The Ladies Literary Group will discuss Sold on a Monday by Kristina McMorris. Zoom information to follow.

Wednesday, October 14, 1:30 pm

The Literary Ladies will discuss On Division by Goldie Goldbloom. Zoom information to follow.

LIVING

Our Assisted Living is about the whole family and the whole YOU.

Of course, we can help you with your daily needs and precautions. But did you know you will also have options for fitness, healthy dining, and more? And assisted living services are tailored to you, so you'll get just the right amount of help you need, when you request it.

But the best part? No matter if you need a little help or a lot, you'll feel the difference.

Schedule a personalized tour to see how a little help can make a big difference!
